Sunrise Ranch and other Emissary Centers participate in the Whole World Meditation

Our own Director of Operations and beloved Trustee, Keahi Ewa, was present at the annual Holistic Centers Gathering at Hollyhock, BC.

The Whole World Meditation was led and broadcast live from Hollyhock on May 15th, via Zoom and Facebook. The purpose of this meditation was to unify centers all over the world and bring ourselves into resonance with the heartbeat of Gaia. It was a powerful experience of tuning in and participating in the evolving life of the planet.

BioDynamic Breathwork & Trauma Release

June 27 - July 4 I 2019

BioDynamic Breathwork & Trauma Release System® (BBTRS®) is a new approach to body-oriented therapy and trauma release. It is founded on a carefully tested combination of specific breathing patterns with therapeutic conscious movement and dance, specialized touch and bodywork techniques, core tension release exercises, gentle emotional release, self-awareness exercises and meditation practice.

BBTRS is designed to break through the many layers of body armoring, thus releasing mental, emotional and physiological tension from your body, mind and nervous system.

BBTRS enables you to feel the full range of sensations and emotions available to a human being, while expanding your capacity to support and contain the free flow of life-force energy. The BioDynamic Breathwork & Trauma Release System® has demonstrated profound and long-lasting benefits for people from every walk of life.

The BBTRS® Training is suitable for aspiring and existing practitioners, as well as anyone wanting to purely experience this powerful work and focus on their own healing process.
